

Sorority Girl Murderer

In the original Sorority Slaughter, Hugo Parker (Ben Morgan) returned from the dead after being shot and killed by a sorority girl named Frankie. But what would have happened if he didn't come back to life and Frankie got away with his murder? Find out what happens 17 years later when one of Hugo's family members learns the truth about his death and goes about getting revenge! And which of the women will be sacrificed to the Great Radu? Starring Tina Krause, Tracey Lixx, Leslie Cummins, Miss Pandora, Laura Giglio, David Lee, Debbie D, Debbie Dreher, Pamela Sutch, and GW Lawrence. (strangling, stabbing, nudity, gore, wet t-shirts, monsters, human sacrifice) (55 min.)

The idea behind Sorority Girl Murderer was to go back to a previous film and offer an alternative timeline to the one presented in the first movie. Anyone who is a fan of Marvel Comics knows about their "What If?" series. What if something changed and led to a different ending than the original? And how might the original characters look today?

Sorority Slaughter was Laura Giglio's first movie for WAVE. She had auditioned back in 1992, but due to personal reasons, she couldn't shoot until 1994. We had run an audition in July of 1994 that was covered by the Courier Post in their Sunday edition. She saw the write-up and called to see if we still needed actresses. And the rest, as they say, is history.

As for Tina Krause, this was one of her earlier roles. She had shot at our studio a couple of times, but this was only the 3rd or 4th time she had shot and the first time on location at someone's house.

As you can see from the stills, both movies now contain one of WAVE's best wet t-shirt scenes!

And David Lee, who played Tina's boyfriend in the original movie, has returned as the same character, but in a far different role than the first movie.

Miss Pandora took up the role of Frankie, first played by Leslie Cummins in 1994.

FRANKIE AWAITS THE COMING OF RADU!

And new characters have been introduced played by Debbie D, Debbie Dreher, and GW Lawrence.

And as a tribute to both Sorority Slaughter and Sorority Slaughter 2, we have included footage of Hugo's (Ben Morgan) resurrection and what he does to a certain coed played by Pamela Sutch.

And you get to see what the creature Radu looks like when Frankie is offered up as a sacrifice in order to bring Hugo back to life!

Here are some additional photos taken during production.

This was Tina's first ever shower scene!
